

RepCon Repair Mortars

The RepCon series of structural repair mortars provides the concrete repair market with innovative technology. Each RepCon product contains microfibers, as well as, state of the art dry-polymer and plasticizer technology. Surface preparation is critical on all concrete repairs. Please contact SpecChem for any additional questions regarding concrete repairs.

RepCon V/O: Vertical/overhead repair mortar

- Vertical/Overhead applications
- Single Component - Ready to use
- Interior/Exterior applications
- Place in lifts up to 2"
- Universal gray color upon curing
- Hand or sprayed applied

RepCon H: Horizontal structural repair mortar

- Horizontal applications
- Single Component - Ready to use
- Interior/Exterior applications
- Extended work time
- Ideal for resurface applications

RepCon H 350: Horizontal structural repair mortar - flowable and self consolidating

- Horizontal applications
- Single Component - Ready to use
- Interior/Exterior applications
- Extended work time
- Ideal for resurface applications when a more flowable and self consolidating mortar is desired

