

SpecChem App Update

Making great even better!

Best app in the industry? That's right, it's SpecChem. So we asked you, our business partners, how we could make our app even better. With your feedback, we have released a new update that makes the information you want more obtainable. We added more DOT approvals and easy access to tech data sheets from the results in our crossover and DOT approval tabs. If you haven't already, download our app today! Available on iTunes and Google Play Store.

- Faster ways to access data
- Additional approvals
- Easy to use calculator
